

Psalms, readings and collect

Date: 9th October – week XXVII

Friday

Venite antiphon:

God made all that passes through the seas; O come, let us adore Him.

Office hymns:

Mattins:

Eternal Glory of the sky,
Blest hope of frail humanity,
The Father's sole-begotten One,
Yet born a spotless Virgin's Son!

Within our senses ever dwell,
And worldly darkness thence expel;
Long as the days of life endure,
Preserve our souls devout and pure.

Uplift us with Thine arm of might,
And let our hearts rise pure and bright,
And, ardent in God's praises, pay
The thanks we owe his every day.

The Faith that first must be possest,
Root deep within our inmost breast;
And joyous hope in second place,
Then charity, Thy greatest grace.

The Daystar's rays are glittering clear,
And tell that day itself is near:
The shadows of the night depart;
Thou, holy Light, illumine the heart!

All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son to Thee;
All glory as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete.

Evensong:

Maker of men, from Heav'n Thy Throne,
Who ord'rest all things, God alone;
By Whose decree the teeming earth
To reptile and to beast gave birth:

In Heav'n, Thine endless joys bestow,
But grant Thy gifts of grace below:
From chains of strife our souls release;
Bind fast the gentle bands of peace.

Thy might forms that fill the land,
Instinct with life at Thy command,
Thou gav'st subdued to humankind
For service in their rank assigned.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, Thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee,
Shall live and reign eternally.

From all Thy servants chase away
Whate'er of thought impure today
Hath mingled with the heart's intent,
Or with the actions hath been blent.

Psalm:

(139) O LORD, thou hast searched me out and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising, thou understandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed : and spiest out all my ways.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue : but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before : and laid thine hand upon me.
 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me : I cannot attain unto it.
 6 Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit : or whither shall I go then from thy presence?
 7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art there : if I go down to hell, thou art there also.
 8 If I take the wings of the morning : and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea;
 9 Even there also shall thy hand lead me : and thy right hand shall hold me.
 10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me : then shall my night be turned to day.
 11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day : the darkness and light to thee are both alike.
 12 For my reins are thine : thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
 13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made : marvellous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.
 14 My bones are not hid from thee : though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.
 15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect : and in thy book were all my members written;
 16 Which day by day were fashioned : when as yet there was none of them.
 17 How dear are thy counsels unto me, O God : O how great is the sum of them!
 18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand : when I wake up I am present with thee.
 19 Wilt thou not slay the wicked, O God : depart from me, ye blood-thirsty men.
 20 For they speak unrighteously against thee : and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.
 21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee : and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?
 22 Yea, I hate them right sore : even as though they were mine enemies.
 23 Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart : prove me, and examine my thoughts.
 24 Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me : and lead me in the way everlasting.
 Glory be to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
 As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Reading:

A Reading from the Gospel according to Saint Luke.

When Jesus had cast out a devil, some of the people said, "He casts out demons by Be-el'zebul, the prince of demons"; while others, to test him, sought from him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a divided household falls. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul. And if I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace; but when one stronger than he assails him and overcomes him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoil. He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters. "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest; and finding none he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes he finds it swept and put in order. Then he goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

Responsories:

Mattins:

I called unto the Most High; for He hath been my help.
I called unto the Most High; for He hath been my help.
May He send from Heaven and save me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.
I called unto the Most High; for He hath been my help.

Evensong:

We give thanks unto Thee, O God; and call upon Thy Name.
We give thanks unto Thee, O God; and call upon Thy Name.
We recount Thy wonderful deeds.
We give thanks unto Thee, O God; and call upon Thy Name.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.
We give thanks unto Thee, O God; and call upon Thy Name.
