Entrance Hymn for the High Mass:

What sweet of life endureth unmixed with bitter pain?
'Midst earthly change and chances what glory doth remain?
All is a feeble shadow, a dream that will not stay;
death cometh in a moment, and taketh all away.
O Christ, a light transcendent shines in thy countenance, and none can tell the sweetness, the beauty of thy glance.

For He Whom now we trust in shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him shall have Him for their own.
The morning shall awaken, the shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant shall shine as doth the day.
Then all the halls of Sion for ay shall be complete;
And in the Lord of Beauty all things of beauty meet.

Notices

Today - Remembrance Sunday

If you wish names to be placed on the catafalque today, write them on a card (available at the back of church) and bring it up during the Justorum Animi (after the homily).

Pop-up Shop

Many thanks to a good number of people who volunteered their time and energies to help at the Pop Up Sale and Nearly New Shop this week. It was very successful on several levels -as well as being profitable and lots of people coming and buying, there were conversations and contacts made in the local and wider community, as well as relieving us of much stock. [This note from Margaret Evans fails to note her own role as the impresaria of the whole event for which we offer the same many thanks - Ed]

Daily Mass

Thank you to those who have responded to the need to bolster attendance at a couple of the weekday Masses. However, to others I would reiterate that this is an important element of our congregational life and ask that those who do not currently attend one of these Masses consider whether they would be able to participate in the weekly round.

Parking permits

Sunday permits are available at the back of church. Please take one today if you have not already taken one.
